

2021 Pollie Contest Regions

This year, local and state level (non-Federal) campaigns get extra love at the Pollies! Enter the Regional Division to compete for twice the recognition at half the price (only $50 per entry)! Winners at the regional level (based on where your campaign was waged) will advance to the finals to compete against other regional campaigns.

To enter the Regional Division, choose the appropriate category for your piece, and select the region in which the campaign was waged (see below for regional breakdowns). One winner per region will be selected and will go head-to-head with winners in the other regions to compete for a national Pollie!
